

II European Congress on Juvenile Delinquency

From Prevention to the Treatment of Multi-Recidivism: Ways of Success in Europe

Lyon, November 4 – 6, 2008

The II European Congress on Juvenile Delinquency welcomes you this year in the Cité Internationale of the city of Lyon, France.

The following institutions:

- ADIS Meridianos (Spain),
- the French Association of Youth and Family Magistrates,
- the Community of Grenoble,
- UNASEA (France),
- the University Research Centre PACTE (CNRS and Institute of Political Studies of Grenoble

in collaboration with

- the French Youth Judicial Protection Service (Ministry of Justice),
- the Obra Social “La Caixa”,
- the newspaper “Le Monde”, have decided to organize the II European Congress on Juvenile Delinquency, under the motto: “From Prevention to the Treatment of Multi-recidivism: Ways of Success in Europe”. The Congress will take place in Lyon from 4th to 6th of November, 2008.

This IInd European Congress intends to analyze the criminal behaviour of children and juveniles as well as to deal with its causes in order to prevent, act and avoid recidivism. For this reason, and given that signs of juvenile delinquency are similar throughout Europe, the sectors concerned are brought together to create a productive debate, to unify not only practices and criteria but also, objectives.

We expect you in Lyon to share the knowledge and to facilitate the cooperation of authorities, researchers and professionals.

You will find the programme of the congress and the registration form on our Web site: www.congres-delinquance-mineurs.org.
